STATEMENT OF POSITION

I am currently involved, as a petitioner, in a statutory intra-party process called a party controversy. Two controversies were filed with the Colorado Republican Party Executive Committee in January 2015. (Exhibit A)

These controversies concern on-going problems with the actions of the First Congressional District Republican Central Committee Chairman, Alexander Hornaday, which includes bylaws violations and violations of best practice. (Exhibit B)

The Petitions were considered by the Executive Committee of the Colorado Republican Party on February 27, 2015 and findings were rendered. (Exhibit C)

The Petition of Party Controversy regarding Chairman Hornaday was referred to the First Congressional District Central Committee at its Organizational Meeting on March 14, 2015. (Exhibit D)

In response to one of the petition points, Chairman Hornaday posted an affidavit (Exhibit E), an image of a cashier's check (Exhibit F), and an image of a courier's log (Exhibit G) to his Facebook page (Exhibit H) and Twitter feed (Exhibit I), and shared it to the Denver Republican Party Facebook page, on February 5, 2015 (Exhibit J).

A cashier's check was issued by David Sprepace on March 8, 2013, from the CD1 checking account, in the amount of $6500.80 and made payable to the Colorado Republican Party.

It is not clear who authorized the disbursement of that money. CD1 bylaws, Article V, Section 5(a) (Exhibit K) require the chairman's authorization for disbursement. Mr. Sprepace appears to indicate, by inference, in his affidavit that it was Chairman Gabriel Schwartz.

The two-year term for elected officers of CD1 was March 26, 2011 to March 2, 2013 (Exhibit L); Schwartz was not actually the chairman on the date the check was issued and Sprepace (serving in an appointed position as treasurer) was not actually the treasurer on that date.

Chairman Alex Hornaday began his term of office on March 2, 2013-March 14, 2015. (Exhibit M) He has acted as both treasurer and chairman for most of his term, although the bylaws clearly state that a treasurer "shall be" appointed in Article V, Section 5(a). (Exhibit K)

The cashier's check was couriered to the Colorado Republican Party offices on March 8, 2013. The courier log shows the signature of Sara Truppo, CRC finance director. (Exhibit N)

It appears he did not deposit it into the FEC account, or any of the four state-level reporting entities which report to the Colorado Secretary of State.

FEC reports for the Colorado Republican Party for the time period of March 1-Dec 31, 2014 show no record of a contribution from CD1 in the amount of $6500.80 or any amount. It appears that this transfer of funds between federal-level political party committees, which is a reportable disbursement, was never reported in 2013-2014. (FEC Party Committee Guide).

The endorsement information obtained from Wells Fargo Bank shows the cashier's check was cashed on September 18, 2014 -- a year and a half later -- by Chairman Ryan Call, of the Colorado Republican Party. (Exhibit O) The endorsement clearly shows his signature, but no account number for deposit.

It also appears the people responsible for CD1 financial transactions (Schwartz, Hornaday, Sprepace) did not properly register CD1 as a reporting entity in 2013. The first evidence of CD1 as a reporting entity is the statement of organization filed by Chairman Alex Hornaday on September 26, 2014.

The first report filed by Chairman Hornaday (Pre General Report 2014) shows a beginning cash on hand of $6500.80. After the disbursement on March 8, 2013 of the $6500.80 cashier's check, it appears this account had at least $13,000.00 in it in 2013. Spreccace's affidavit states that Chairman Gabriel Schwartz was paid for expenses, so it seems logical those disbursements should be factored into a beginning balance amount for 2013.

There has been no financial report or audit in the eight years (2005-2013) that Chairman Gabriel Schwartz was in office, or in the two years that Chairman Alexander Hornaday has held office.

Additional concerns regarding the collection and reporting of funds are outlined in the petition of controversy and include: lack of itemization of funds from Denver County Republican Party ($2003 in total), lack of collection of funds due from Jefferson County Republican Party, and the lack of reporting of funds collected on the day of the assembly in April 2014.

In the matter of the) Petition of Party Controversy) Petitioners' Statement of Position Congressional District 1) January 8, 2015
To the Colorado Republican Party) Executive Committee)

STATEMENT OF POSITION

I. Introduction

Petitioners Jennifer Qualteri, Congressional District 1 Central Committee voting member, and Florence Sebern, Congressional District 1 resident/non-voting member, bring the petition against Congressional District 1 Chairman Alexander Hornaday for continued violations of Congressional District 1 ("CD1") Bylaws, Colorado Republican Committee ("CRC") Bylaws, and best practices. The Petitioners would like to see a functional district. They bring the petition in that spirit and request remedies as listed below and any other remedies as you see fit.

II. Statement of Facts

At the Congressional District 1 Central Committee organizational meeting on March 2, 2013, Alex Hornaday, formerly the secretary of CD1, ran for chairman. He stated it was his intent to be a better chairman and conduct the business of the district according to the bylaws and best practices. In his candidate speech, Jeff Krump, who ran as an incumbent for Vice Chairman, echoed those sentiments.

Newly-elected Chairman Hornaday conducted an invalid and improper election of the CD1 representative to the State Executive Committee. On March 5, 2013, Chairman Hornaday, Vice Chairman Jeff Krump, and Secretary Gavin Halligan elected Mr. Krump as the CD1 representative to the State Executive Committee (Exhibit 1).

Mr. Krump resigned as CD1 Vice Chairman on January 7, 2014 (Exhibit 2). He took a position as the Denver County Chairman for Scott Gessler's campaign for Governor (Exhibit 3). Chairman Hornaday failed to hold a vacancy election for the position of Vice Chairman and this office has remained vacant for a year.

1-034440140-1

In March 2013, Chairman Hornaday told Florence Sebern that former Chairman Gabriel Schwartz had improperly disbursed money to himself as "consulting fees." Vice Chairman Jeff Krump admitted he knew about it, too. Chairman Hornaday did not have the books audited, has not disclosed the fiduciary misconduct to the CD1 Central Committee, and has not tried to recoup the funds.

Chairman Hornaday did not appoint a treasurer until early 2014. That treasurer resigned in August 2014 because he moved from the district. Chairman Hornaday has not appointed another treasurer. He has acted as the treasurer himself, in violation of the bylaws and with no accountability to either the Executive Committee or the Central Committee.

Chairman Hornaday has unilaterally decided not to collect delegate fees from the Jefferson County ("JeffCo") GOP, after requiring delegates to pay those fees. He disbursed funds, of an arbitrary amount, to the campaign of CD1 candidate, Martin Walsh, after stating at the assembly that all proceeds from delegate fees -- less costs -- would be given to Walsh's campaign.

The bylaws require quarterly meetings yet Chairman Hornaday has called only two regular meetings in two years. Communication with Chairman Hornaday about issues of concern has been inconsistent and/or non-responsive. He has shown little regard for the responsibility, accountability, and transparency with which a Chairman should serve. The Petitioners are deeply disappointed that the sentiments expressed by Chairman Hornaday when he wanted votes in 2013, have been mostly that -- sentiment.

III. Bylaws

The Colorado Republican Committee ("CRC") Bylaws, Article XVI, Section A. Adoption (Exhibit 4), states "Counties and districts may adopt their own bylaws but they shall not be in conflict with the CRC bylaws."

CRC Bylaws, Article IX. Section A, Paragraph 1 (b) states the requirement for voting membership of the State Executive Committee from the Congressional Districts. "Elected members shall be one representative elected from and by each of the congressional district central committees." (Exhibit 5)

CD1 Bylaws, Article VI, Representative to State Executive Committee, Paragraph 1, states:

The Executive Committee of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall elect, by majority vote, one member of said Central Committee, to sit on the Executive Committee of the Colorado Republican Party. (Exhibit 6)

CD1 Bylaws do not have a specific provision for the vacancy of an Executive Committee member, however, Article X, Vacancies, Paragraph 1, states:

Vacancies in an office of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall be filled by election at the next regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee or as otherwise required by law. (Exhibit 6)

CD1 Bylaws, Article VIII, Paragraph 2, states:

The Chairman shall call no fewer than one regular meeting of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee per calendar quarter. (Exhibit 6)

CD1 Bylaws, Article VIII, Paragraph 5, states:

A quorum for any meeting of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall consist of an absolute majority of the current membership. (Exhibit 6)

IV. Argument

Invalid Election of Representative to State Executive Committee

Chairman Hornaday failed to comply with CRC Bylaws in the election of the member representative from CD1 to the State Executive Committee. The CD1 Bylaws are in conflict with the CRC Bylaws. The CRC Bylaws require CD1 representative to the State Executive Committee to be elected "from and by each of the congressional district central committees" while the CD1 Bylaws allow the CD1 Executive Committee to accomplish this election. Since the CD1 Bylaws are in conflict with the CRC Bylaws, the CRC Bylaws should control this situation and the CD1 Bylaws on this issue are void. The election of Mr. Krump as the CD1 representative to the State Executive Committee should also be void.

Failure to Hold Vacancy Election

Chairman Hornaday also failed to hold a vacancy election after the resignation of the CD1 Vice Chairman Jeff Krump in January 2014 (Exhibit 4, 5). While CD1 Bylaws do not have a specific provision for the vacancy of an Executive Committee member, Article X. Vacancies, Paragraph 1 states:

Vacancies in an office of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall be filled by election at the next regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee or as otherwise required by law. (Exhibit 6)

The Executive Committee has not met since January 2014 to elect a member to the vacancy of Vice Chairman (Exhibit 7, 8).

Failure to Account for Financial Resources

Chairman Hornaday has also failed to have an audit conducted of the financial books (Exhibit 9). An audit at the end of an administrative term is commonly acknowledged as best practice. Although the CD1 Bylaws are silent on an audit (the bylaws are also silent on any required financial reports to the Central Committee), it is in a Chairman's best interest to start a new term with a clean bill of financial health. The only reason not to conduct an audit is to hide a problem.

Failure to Disclose Fiduciary Misconduct

Chairman Hornaday failed to disclose the fiduciary misconduct and improper disbursement of monies from the CD1 treasury to former Chairman Gabriel Schwartz, who illicitly paid "consulting fees" to himself. Chairman Hornaday knew about this and yet did nothing, either as the previous Secretary of CD1 or as the current Chairman of CD1. An audit would have disclosed the situation and the Central Committee should have had an opportunity to address it. Chairman Hornaday verbally told Ms. Sebern about Mr. Schwartz' fiduciary misconduct and Mr. Krump confirmed, in writing, that only CD1 officers were aware of it (Exhibit 10).

Failure to Appoint a Treasurer

Chairman Hornaday failed to appoint a treasurer during the remainder of 2013 following his election. He appointed Eric Heyssel as treasurer in early 2014, but Mr. Heyssel moved from the district in August 2014 (Exhibit 11) and resigned as treasurer. Since then, Chairman Hornaday has failed to appoint another treasurer (Exhibit 12). Chairman Hornaday – with no accountability to either the Executive Committee or the Central Committee of CD1 – has acted as treasurer for one and a half of his two-year term, in violation of CD1 Bylaws Article V, Officers, Paragraph 5(a), states, in part, that the Chairman:

-Shall appoint a Treasurer.

-Shall authorize the Treasurer to expend the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee funds. (Exhibit 6)

Chairman Hornaday expended funds without a treasurer. CD1 Bylaws, Article V, Paragraph 5a, states that the Chairman "[S]hall authorize the Treasurer to expend the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee funds." (Exhibit 6)

There is no provision for the Chairman to disburse funds without a Treasurer.

Chairman Hornaday has represented himself as the Treasurer in Federal Election Commission (FEC) filings (Exhibit 13), and disbursed funds without accountability to either the Executive Committee or the Central Committee of CD1.

Failure to Collect Assembly Fees

Chairman Hornaday failed to collect CD1 assembly fees from JeffCo GOP after requiring the fees from delegates and alternates in that county (Exhibit 14). JeffCo GOP campaign finance report, dated June 3, 2014 (Exhibit 15) shows receipts from delegates and disbursement for assembly fees to Congressional Districts 2 and 7. There are no disbursements from JeffCo GOP to CD1, and no disbursement made in subsequent reports through 2014 (Exhibits 16-20).

Arapahoe County GOP delegates paid fees at the assembly, directly to CD1.
Denver County GOP disbursed funds to CD1 (Exhibits 21, 22).

Failure to Call Required Meetings

Chairman Hornaday failed to call required quarterly meetings, per CD1 Bylaws.
Below are the meetings that were held.

Quarter	Meeting	Convened
Q1: Jan-Mar 2013	Organizational Meeting	Yes
Q2: Apr-Jun 2013	Yes (Exhibit 23)	No quorum (Exhibit 24)
Q3: Jul-Sep 2013	No	n/a
Q4: Oct-Dec 2013	No	n/a
Q1: Jan-Mar 2014	Yes (Exhibit 25)	No quorum (Exhibit 26)
Q2: Apr-Jun 2014	No	n/a
Q3: Jul-Sep 2014	No	n/a
Q4: Oct-Dec 2014	No	n/a

Out of eight required meetings, only three have been called and only one – the organizational meeting in 2013 – could be convened.

Failure to Remedy Quorum Requirement

The reason neither of the other two meetings could be convened is because the quorum for the CD1 central committee meeting is unreasonably high – a full majority of members must be present. All other Congressional District organizations require a quorum of either those present and voting or not more than 10 members. CD1 has not convened a meeting in over 10 years, with the exception of the biennial organizational meetings.

Chairman Hornaday failed to propose a bylaws change to reduce the number of members required for a quorum, so that called meetings could be properly convened. As seen, above, only one meeting could be properly convened, the 2013 organizational meeting, due to the overly stringent requirement for a quorum in the CD1 Bylaws, Article VIII, Paragraph 5. (Exhibit 6)

This requirement hobbled the district from functioning properly and could be easily remedied with a simple bylaws amendment. Chairman Hornaday currently serves as the Denver County GOP Bylaws Chairman – a position he has held for three years; prior to being Chairman, he served as a member of the Denver County GOP Bylaws Committee for six years. In 2013, he wrote, proposed, and publicly spoke in favor of 13 amendments to the Denver County GOP Central Committee bylaws. He could have easily remedied the CD1 bylaws, and was urged to do so by Ms. Qualteri (Exhibit 27).

Failure to be Responsive to Members

Chairman Hornaday failed to be responsive to proper inquiries by Central Committee members and other members of the GOP who reside in the CD1 boundaries on matters of records requests (Exhibits 28, 29), meetings (Exhibit 30, 31), and avenues for donations (Exhibit 32). Chairman Hornaday did not respond to these reasonable requests.

V. Conclusion

An elected chairman of a political district organization has certain authority which must be discharged with responsibility and transparency. The elected officers of the district, the elected members of the district Central Committee, engaged non-voting members of the district, and the bylaws of the district are supposed to provide a structure of accountability. This has not been the case in CD1.

Ms. Qualteri and Ms. Sebern ask the Colorado Republican Party Executive Committee to consider the evidence and grant the following requests.

Petitioners request Chairman Hornaday be compelled to

1. Collect delegates fees of $1,155.00 (77 delegates x $15/delegate) from JeffCo GOP and deposit it into the CD1 account;

- 17044401000
2. Conduct an audit¹ of the books, for each year from January 2005 through December 2014, to be performed by a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensed to practice in the State of Colorado and in good standing, and completed before the CD1 organizational meeting in March 2015;
 3. Conduct a forensic review of the audit reports, for the ten years from January 2005 through December 2014, to be performed by a qualified person or firm, with experience and expertise in performing such a review and the minimum qualification of a Certified Fraud Examiner designation or comparable certification, and completed before the CD1 organizational meeting in March 2015;
 4. Take whatever steps necessary and reasonable to determine the full amount of funds improperly disbursed to former Chairman Gabriel Schwartz and to recoup these improperly disbursed funds from former Chairman Gabriel Schwartz;
 5. Email a copy of the audit reports with accompanying audited financial statements and the report of the forensic accountant and forensic review to Ms. Qualteri and Ms. Sebern as soon as they are completed;
 6. Send the attached CD1 bylaws amendments (Exhibit 33), with no edits, to the CD1 Central Committee members with the Call to the 2015 CD1 organizational meeting, ensuring the Call and amendments are sent with the required 30 day notice for consideration of bylaws changes;
 7. Add the audit reports and forensic accountant's report to the agenda of the 2015 CD1 organizational meeting, for consideration and approval by the Central Committee members, and make copies of the audit reports and forensic accountant's report available at the meeting;
 8. Add the proposed bylaws amendments -- to be considered separately -- to the agenda for the 2015 CD1 organizational meeting, for discussion and vote of the Central Committee members;
 9. Any other remedy deemed fit.

¹An "audit" in this context is an audit of the financial statements of the District conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, resulting in a written opinion expressed by the Certified Public Accountant performing the audit as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the District as of December 31 of each year being audited, 2005 through 2014.

Thanks for the correction, I will make the change on the draft.

It seems to me that the appropriate body to approve them would be the CD1 CC, rather than the EC. I haven't scheduled the CC Q2 meeting yet.

I have not yet appointed a treasurer; though I will not retain Sprecaze.

The CD1 EC (Me, Jeff, and Gavin) met on 3/5/13 and we elected Jeff Krump is our Representative to State EC

I'll ask Wendy to scan the credential list; that's a good idea. I'll forward it to you as soon as I have a copy.

Thanks for the minutes. One small correction: it's Rep. Justin Everett who nominated me, not Justin Wright. It looks like, since they are noted "draft", that an Executive Committee meeting hasn't been called. They would have been approved at the ExComm meeting -- correct?

I'd like to see the list of credentialed voters for the CD1, if possible. Maybe Wendy could scan the original and send it to you to forward?

Is someone serving on the State ExComm from CD1?

Have you appointed a treasurer?

I agree wholeheartedly that the effort of reporting is a crummy reason for not contributing to the official candidate. I don't expect that behavior to continue with the current Chairman grin, but that leads back to our conversation after the CD1 meeting. A team is only as good as the players and the players should have individual responsibility, accountability, and transparency, so they can discharge their duties and together be a strong team.

I'll look for the CD1 Credentials list soon . . . yes?

Subject: Working with you on the executive committee

It has been a real pleasure and joy to work with each of you on the DenverGOP Executive Committee. The best part is the relationships that have been forged and getting to know so many like minded people.

Wendy has asked me to stay on as an advisor and while no longer being a voting member of the committee, it is an honor to be asked and I have agreed to do so. I will still come to the EC and District 6 meetings.

I will help book and manage the Lincoln Day Dinner, any other special events, help on the County Assembly, caucus, train the teller committee, provide my jumbo elephant and daughter for parades etc.

My decision is multifold but it rests a lot on what can I do to win elections for Republicans. We NEED to defeat Hickenlooper and my joining Scott's team seems like the best way I can contribute to accomplishing that. I am friends with Tom, Greg, Mike etc so did not think it was ethical for me to throw my support behind Scott without jumping in with both feet. I honestly believe he has the best shot to win.

It was never a negative re the DenGOP. I have really enjoyed my past 8 years working with the county party. I am not going away, just approaching it all from a different perspective.

If any controversy arises at the county, representative, senatorial, judicial, or congressional district level which cannot be resolved at that level, such controversy shall be determined by the CRC or the Executive Committee, in accordance with rules and procedures provided by the CRC or by the State Assembly and/or Convention. If the controversy is determined by the Executive Committee, any party to the controversy may appeal the decision to the CRC. The determination of the CRC shall be final.

ARTICLE XVI: BYLAWS FOR COUNTIES AND DISTRICTS

I guess I was confused because at the assembly he still referred to himself as the vice of CD-1 and that he was on the executive committee.

Hello again,

I made a logic typo in my previous email and wanted to write one more time.

I should have said Alex and Gavin form a committee to change the quorum bylaw. Also I should have used the term vacancy committee when I was addressing the issue to replace Jeff Krump. Finally I keep getting stuck on this part, but what I meant was that Alex should have motivated Jefferson County to form a vacancy committee, and replace the Luceros by now rather than formed the vacancy committee to do that himself.

Moreover the fact that the election is just 2 months away was running quarter 3 and 4 together in my mind, but you probably get my point; that being we cannot wait until the end of September to meet, unless we turn right around and meet again the 1st of October. Otherwise we would be violating the bylaw that requires the committee to meet quarterly, and the meetings would not be productive unless these last dates were more strategically planned to increase Walsh's chance for success in the upcoming election.

With respect to campaign money I know that Alex promised to give nominal contribution to Walsh, has that happened? The reason I ask is that we really should have raised 20 time that amount for Walsh's campaign.

Thanks again for your time, and I hope you have a good Labor Day!

Request for CD1 Org Minutes, Cred & Treas Report

Attached are the minutes, which apart from noting the numbers credentialed as given by Wendy, does not include a copy of those who signed in. That is at the Denver GOP HQ, and While I was there last week, I forgot to retrieve it.

Also, the only treasurer's report or audit I have, is the amount in our bank account, $6500.80. There appears to be no other reporting whatsoever. NB: Wendy asked numerous times for a financial report from Spreccace and did not get one.

Currently CD1 does not file reports with any entity. Because it is concerned with Federal elections, the rules require reporting if CD1 spends $1000 or more on the election, not including its own operations (i.e. the money paid to the Jeffco Clerk and Recorder to count the ballots at the assembly). This is why they have not in the past given money to our candidates. I think "we just don't want to report" is a pretty crummy reason not to support our candidates.

Alex,

At your convenience, may I have a copy of the 2013 CD1 organizational meeting minutes and the credentials committee report (if it's not included in the minutes).

In looking at the bylaws, there is no provision whatsoever for treasurer's reports or annual audit. May I request a current treasurer's report, also?

What outside entity, if any, does CD1 file finance reports with?

Thanks for your time and consideration,
Florence

Jeff Krump, in a thread, below admitted that he knew CD1 Chairman Gabe Schwartz wrote himself checks for "consulting fees" from the CD1 coffers while serving as chairman.

Ethically, that expenditure can't be made. None of the officers acted to rectify the misconduct.

The officers of the 2011-2013 term were: Gabe Schwartz, Chairman; Jeff Krump, Vice Chairman; Alexander Hornaday, Secretary; Treasurer, Dave Spreccace; Legal Officer, Harry Arkin.

The officers of the 2013-2015 term are: Alexander Hornaday, Chairman; Jeff Krump, Vice Chairman; Gavin Halligan, Secretary; Treasurer unknown; Legal Officer unknown..

What have they done to be responsible, accountable, and transparent with the act of misconduct to the CD1 Central Committee? What have they done to rectify the misappropriation of funds by past-Chairman Gabe Schwartz?

Jeff Krump, please respond.

REFERENCE: 12 DAY PRE-GENERAL REPORT (10/01/14-10/15/14)

Dear Treasurer:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report referenced above. This notice requests information essential to full public disclosure of your federal election campaign finances. Failure to adequately respond by the response date noted above could result in an audit or enforcement action. Additional information is needed for the following 1 item(s):

- All reports must bear an original signature of the treasurer, assistant treasurer, or designated agent. The faxed report received by the Commission does not fulfill this requirement. Please file a report bearing an appropriate signature. (52 U.S.C. §30104(a)(1) (formerly 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1)) and 11 CFR §104.14(a) and (d))

Please note, you will not receive an additional notice from the Commission on this matter. Adequate responses must be received by the Commission on or before the due date noted above to be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered.

Electronic filers must file amendments (to include statements, designations and reports) in an electronic format and must submit an amended report in its entirety, rather than just those portions of the report that are being amended. If you should have any questions regarding this matter or wish to verify the adequacy of your response, please contact me on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or my local number (202) 694-1133.

Hello All,

As I am sure many of you are aware we have an Assembly on April 11, 2014. Most of the preparatory work is in progress, but I think it's a good idea for us to meet as a Central Committee before then.

The date I have selected is Sunday, March 30. I anticipate an afternoon meeting in order to accommodate those (like me) who go to church on Sunday mornings.

I do not yet have a venue, as the Denver GOP no longer leases space large enough for us. This presents an opportunity. At all our prior meetings we did not have a quorum, and could conduct no official business. Perhaps having the meeting somewhere that serves refreshment might entice attendance. I am open to suggestions.

Be aware, I must set the time and the venue by noon Thursday, March 20th so I can mail all the calls in accordance with our notice requirements. As is my custom I will be emailing the call as well.

If any of you would be willing to forgo receipt of a hard copy call, and save us a stamp let me know.

Best,

Alex Hornaday

Hi Jennifer:

Regarding the minutes, without a quorum, no official business could occur and the meeting could not be called to order and thus no minutes were taken.

Alex told me that we weren't in the skybox because when he arrived he was told it was closed..

Thank you,

Gavin Halligan

Hello again,

I made a logic typo in my previous email and wanted to write one more time.

I should have said Alex and Gavin form a committee to change the quorum bylaw. Also I should have used the term vacancy committee when I was addressing the issue to replace Jeff Krump. Finally I keep getting stuck on this part, but what I meant was that Alex should have motivated Jefferson County to form a vacancy committee, and replace the Luceros by now rather than formed the vacancy committee to do that himself.

Moreover the fact that the election is just 2 months away was running quarter 3 and 4 together in my mind, but you probably get my point; that being we cannot wait until the end of September to meet, unless we turn right around and meet again the 1st of October. Otherwise we would be violating the bylaw that requires the committee to meet quarterly, and the meetings would not be productive unless these last dates were more strategically planned to increase Walsh's chance for success in the upcoming election.

With respect to campaign money I know that Alex promised to give nominal contribution to Walsh, has that happened? The reason I ask is that we really should have raised 20 time that amount for Walsh's campaign.

Thanks again for your time, and I hope you have a good Labor Day!

Three weeks from last check-in for the credentials report; ten weeks from CentComm -- I guess I don't understand the delay.

You agreed that honest communication is important, Alex. What happened?

Just checking on the credentials report from CD1 -- available yet?

You're right about the minutes being approved at the next CC meeting. If the meeting were more than a quarterly interval, RONR advises approval of minutes at an executive meeting. I'm just not used to the chairman actually having a quarterly meeting snark. Thanks in advance for your adherence to the rules!

thanks,
Florence

Thanks for the correction, I will make the change on the draft.

It seems to me that the appropriate body to approve them would be the CD1 CC, rather than the EC. I haven't scheduled the CC Q2 meeting yet.

I have not yet appointed a treasurer; though I will not retain Spreccace.

The CD1 EC (Me, Jeff, and Gavin) met on 3/5/13 and we elected Jeff Krump as our Representative to State EC

I'll ask Wendy to scan the credential list; that's a good idea. I'll forward it to you as soon as I have a copy.

Alex,

Thanks for the minutes. One small correction: it's Rep. Justin Everett who nominated me, not Justin Wright. It looks like, since they are noted "draft", that an Executive Committee meeting hasn't been called. They would have been approved at the ExComm meeting -- correct?

I'd like to see the list of credentialed voters for the CD1, if possible. Maybe Wendy could scan the original and send it to you to forward?

Is someone serving on the State ExComm from CD1?

Have you appointed a treasurer?

I agree wholeheartedly that the effort of reporting is a crummy reason for not contributing to the official candidate. I don't expect that behavior to continue with the current Chairman grin, but that leads back to our conversation after the CD1 meeting. A team is only as good as the players and the players should have individual responsibility, accountability, and transparency, so they can discharge their duties and together be a strong team.

I'll look for the CD1 Credentials list soon . . . yes?

gratefully,
Florence

Attached are the minutes, which apart from noting the numbers credentialed as given by Wendy, does not include a copy of those who signed in. That is at the Denver GOP HQ, and While I was there last week, I forgot to retrieve it.

Also, the only treasurer's report or audit I have, is the amount in our bank account, $6500.80. There appears to be no other reporting whatsoever. NB: Wendy asked numerous times for a financial report from Spreace and did not get one.

Currently CD1 does not file reports with any entity. Because it is concerned with Federal elections, the rules require reporting if CD1 spends $1000 or more on the election, not including its own operations (i.e. the money paid to the Jeffco Clerk and Recorder to count the ballots at the assembly). This is why they have not in the past given money to our candidates. I think "we just don't want to report" is a pretty crummy reason not to support our candidates.

Dear Alex,

Did I miss something or did we neglect to have our quarterly meeting this time since it is 08.31.2014? I believe we needed for you and Gavin to form a vacancy committee in order to address our ability to vote with a smaller quorum.

Also we needed for our executive committee to form an agenda and replace our resigned members namely the Luceros in Jefferson County and Jeff Krump who resigned his position to work on Scott's primary.

It would have been a good time to get our house districts's PCPs to rally our fellow republicans and raise money for our CD1 candidate....so does this mean we get to have two meetings close together before the November election...say one now, and one in October?

I for one know that my constituents want us to try and unseat Congresswoman DeGette, and this is more than a crucial time; moreover we seem to be running behind.

Thank you for your time, and your immediate attention to our CD1 matters would be greatly appreciated.

I want to contact the new treasurer, so I could start donating to the CD1 2014 effort. I forget his name and wanted to get started when you introduced him in our last meeting, but I forgot at the end to get the info. Can you give me his contact info or tell me where to start sending a little cash?

CD1 Bylaws: Proposed Amendments for 2015 Central Committee Organizational Meeting (1 of 4)

2008 Language

ARTICLE VI

Representative to State Executive Committee

1. The Executive Committee of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall elect, by majority vote, one member of said Central Committee, to sit on the Executive Committee of the Colorado Republican Party.

2015 Amendment Language

Amend Article VI. (1) to read:

1. The 1st Congressional district Republican Central Committee shall elect one member to sit on the Executive Committee of the Colorado Republican Party. The election shall be held at the organizational meeting of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee, held each odd-numbered year. Election shall be by secret ballot.

Effect

This amendment will bring CD1 bylaws into compliance with the bylaws of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee (CRC), Article IX. Executive Committee, Section A. Membership, 1(b), which states:

- b. Elected members shall be one representative elected from and by each of the congressional district central committees.

This amendment restores the proper responsibility to the full voting membership of the CD1 Central Committee, instead of three or four people on the CD1 Executive Committee -- deciding among themselves -- who will represent CD1 on the State Executive Committee.

CD1 Bylaws: Proposed Amendments for 2015 Central Committee Organizational Meeting (2 of 4)

2008 Language

Article VIII. Meetings

5. A quorum for any meeting of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall consist of an absolute majority of the current membership.

2015 Amendment Language

Amend Article VIII. Meetings, Section 5 to read:

5. A quorum for any meeting of the 1st Congressional District Republican Central Committee shall consist of ten (10) voting members.

Effect

This amendment will decrease the number of voting members needed to conduct a meeting.

An absolute majority means having 50% + 1 of the total voting members at a meeting. This is unreasonably high and, as a result, there have been NO regular meetings convened in the last two years, because the quorum cannot be met.

None of the other 6 congressional districts in Colorado requires this number for a quorum.

All other congressional districts have quorums set at either a) ten members, or b) those members present and voting.

This simple change allows the district to function normally and conduct business regularly.

Colorado Republican Committee
Executive Committee Meeting

On the three matters before the state executive committee the executive committee ruled as follows:

1. On the question of the alleged conflict between the bylaws of the first Congressional District and the bylaws of the state Republican Central committee with respect to the question of the authority to elect the executive committee representative, the executive committee ruled that there is no conflict, and found that Jeff Krump was properly elected and eligible to serve for his final meeting as the representative from the first Congressional District to the executive committee.
2. With respect to the petition of controversy concerning the operations of the first Congressional District, the executive committee determined that the first Congressional District had not yet been given the opportunity to pass upon the merits of the claims, and as such the executive committee resolved to refer the matter to the First Congressional District Central Committee.
3. With respect to the matter concerning the Costilla County Republican Party, the Executive Committee resolved to recognize the results and outcome of the county organizational meeting to be held under the authority and at the call of the Republican State Central Committee Chairman on March 1, 2015 in accordance with state law and the specific rules and bylaws of the state Republican Party. While recognizing that Ms. Carole Naro's actions were taken without authority and not in compliance with the applicable rules and legal authority, the executive committee also resolved to recognize and applaud the efforts and contributions made by Carole Naro in connection with efforts to help restart the Republican Party in Costilla County.

Best regards,

Ryan R. Call, Esq.
Chairman

I wanted to run a positive campaign, but of course one must respond to allegations, especially when they smear third parties. There are some emails going around and even a formal complaint against me for not filing charges or trying to recover funds alleged to be misappropriated by the former Chair of CD1. Well, that's because Gabe Schwartz DID NOT misappropriate funds. He did not pay himself any consulting fees from CD1 funds. Below is a sworn affidavit from Dave Spreccace who served as treasurer while Gabe Schwartz was Chairman of CD1 that states unequivocally that Gabe Schwartz did not and could not have misappropriate any CD1 funds. Hopefully this will put this ugly and defamatory rumor to rest.

Chuck Poplstein

Executive Director

Email

(w) 303.758.3333

Chuck joined the Colorado Republican Committee in 2010 after serving as the Republican National Committee's Victory Director for Missouri in 2008. With Chuck's help and direction in Missouri, Republicans were able to deliver the state for the McCain-Palin campaign.

Prior to the serving as Victory Director, Poplstein worked for Rudy Giuliani's Presidential campaign as a field director in the early primary state of South Carolina. He also served as a GOP regional field director in Senator Jim Talent's re-election campaign in 2006 and afterward worked as a legislative liaison at the Missouri Department of Higher Education.
